- a.) The bylaws stipulate that we have a Code of Conduct that defines membership in orchestra.
  - b.) Ideas:
    - i.) Come prepared for rehearsal.
    - ii.) Be guiet during rehearsals (until it's time to play!)
    - iii.) Watch language!
    - iv.) Be respectful of rehearsal time.
  - c.) Rachael volunteers to draft it.
- d.) Conveniently, the bylaws can be changed anytime without us needing to file paperwork, so we can alter anything that we draft that we may later regret. Rachael motions to close the floor, Mike seconds.
- 4.) Finance Rachael introduces motion, Mike seconds.
  - a.) We need one bank account.

- b.) Having a physical bank, rather than online-only, is advantageous when one actually needs extraordinary services, which may be beneficial for us as an organization.
- c.) Some members would be very willing to donate to help us get account off the ground (above minimum required to avoid fees).
- d.) We need to make sure we research institutions thoroughly before selecting one for our business.
  - e.) We should check out Ally Bank as an online option.
  - f.) Stephen will investigate and post options soon.
- g.) We need to file taxes this year, but we can file after April 1st. Our fiscal year is July 1st to June 30th. Corporations have 4 months from the end of their fiscal year to file.
- h.) Since we got corporation paperwork, we need to record expenses for web site, advertising, rehearsal spaces, etc.
  - i.) We can also record out-of-pocket payments and donations as income.
- j.) Budget: if people want to send donations, we can set up checks and such with Stephen and Bryan. Anyone who has spent money on orchestra stuff should send copies of receipts to play@NorwalkGSO.org and to Stephen. Receipts from the past will help us form a budget for the future. We can store receipts in a Google account, or on our DropBox, or elsewhere.
- k.) Possible online venues for allowing donations include Zell, Venmo, PayPal, classy.org, and others. We should investigate these for which are legal to use and easiest for managing donations.
- I.) East Norwalk library is hiking up prices for its Hall rental. Rachael moves to close the floor, Ben seconds.
- 5.) Committees Rachael introduces motion, Mike seconds.
- a.) Finance Committee consists of Treasurer and 2 Board Members Stephen, Bryan, and Mike.
  - b.) Program Committee consists of Lexi, Nick, and Bryan.
  - c.) Personnel Committee consists of Sam and Bryan.

  - e.) Library Committee consists of Rachael and Bryan.
  - f.) Stage Committee consists of Ben and Bryan.
