 - b.) Lot of stuff going on personally, too busy to record - Bryan
 - c.) Video production - we should put out guidelines for how to record video to avoid portrait/landscape mishmash and other basic issues - Nina
 - d.) Now that we know it's a thing that can happen, it might be easier to get people on board, knowing what the expectations are. - Nina
 - e.) Still cool with music committee choosing the piece, rather than voting on the next piece as a whole orchestra. - Bryan
 - f.) See if recording engineers could volunteer to slightly more publicly host a recording day. - Vince
 - g.) Make the spreadsheet of who's playing which parts visible. - Sam
 - h.) Page on the web site where you can play stems on each instrument alongside click track, selectable multi-tracks - Andy
 - i.) Submit button on web site - combine with Andy's idea?
